We begin the survey at Mass this weekend, May 21 and 22, and continue after Mass in the parish hall on the weekend of May 28 and 29. If you are not able to complete the survey at either of these times, you can do so on the following website: https://my.gallupfaith.com/holyspiritmontana_59405; access code: D634511. Thank you for your input as we plan ahead for our parish.

Your support is needed and appreciated! Giving online is very convenient and easy at www.catholicfoundationmt.org; or simply place your donation envelope in our offertory basket. Your gift will stay right here in our diocese to benefit our entire Catholic Church, including our parish. Thank you!

Pastoral Council Nominations

Thanks so much to Paul Boland and Kate Triplett who have completed their second terms on the Council and served our parish well over the past years. We are now seeking nominations to replace them on the Council. If you or someone you know has the spiritual and leadership qualities to continue to guide our parish into the future, please fill out the nominating form below. Council members meet monthly September through June and serve on one of the several parish commissions and councils: Worship, Religious Education, Christian Service, Stewardship/Development, and Building.

I would like to submit the name of _____ for consideration as a member of the Pastoral Council. I have talked to this person who has agreed to be nominated.

Signed: _____

Please clip and return to the parish office by June 6th.

Liturgical Tidbits: Applause by Paul Turner

 (cont.) Gradually, applause has found a fitting place within our worship. In fact, the rite for the ordination of a priest invites the people to give their assent to the choice of these candidates for service "according to local custom." Well, everybody applauds. The action celebrates God's choice, the church's unity, and the candidate's spiritual discernment.

Other occasions merit the same response. Applause can often be heard in support of a newly married couple. It congratulates a couple on their anniversary for the witness they give the community. It affirms a homily. It rejoices with children on their first communion day. It thanks a choir for uplifting our hearts in prayer.

Applause serves best when it expresses our unity in faith. It ultimately is directed toward God, the creator of all, the one responsible for all human accomplishment. It does with our hands what we do with our voices whenever we shout praise.

"Clap your hands, all you peoples," acclaims Psalm 47.

"Shout to God with loud songs of joy."
