

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote. Learn about the issues.

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Catholic bishops lift up various issues of different moral weight and urgency. Some issues they mention include: addressing abortion, euthanasia, the use of the death penalty and imprudent resort to war; protecting the fundamental understanding of marriage as the life-long and faithful union of one man and one woman; achieving comprehensive immigration reform; caring for our common home; helping families and children overcome poverty; providing healthcare while respecting human life, human dignity and religious freedom; and establishing and complying with moral limits on the use of military force. Learn more about these issues and others at www.faithfulcitizenship.org.

Liturgical Tidbits: Baked Bread by Paul Turner

As a wag has said, it's easier to believe that bread really becomes the body of Christ than it is to believe that the host is really bread. The bread of the Eucharist traditionally takes the form of hosts, but some Catholic communities bake their own the Mass that the bread "must be recently made" and "that the material for the Eucharistic Celebration truly have the appearance of food" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal 320, 321). Authenticity for this most central sign requires that the bread look like genuine food to be broken and shared by the faithful. Baked bread makes the symbolic connection to the food of the Last Supper. Jesus took the ordinary substances of his dinner table and transformed them into his own body and blood. When the bread offered at Mass more nearly resembles ordinary bread, the full impact of the miracle sinks in. The eternal Son of God becomes truly present to us under the form of the simplest of substances. Baked bread allows a local community to offer its own ritual of breaking the bread during the Lamb of God. The early church referred to the Eucharist as "the breaking of the faithful." According to the tradition of the Roman Catholic Church, eucharistic bread is unleavened, made from wheat should be taken that the bread not be underdone nor baked too hard. Instead of reserving it in the tabernacle after Mass, it is consumed before spoiling or turning brittle.

Our parish is taking up a collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. While the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care. Many suffer due to high rates of poverty and unemployment, illiteracy, and poor education. The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa supports pastoral projects that foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension. Envelopes for this collection are in the holder by the office door.

Memorial Garden Update

Please take a minute after Mass to go outside and enjoy our beautiful Memorial Garden. The flowers are blooming, and it's a wonderful spot for quiet prayer, reflection and remembrance. Our two columbaria serve as the final resting place for several of our parishioners who have passed away. Many others have made plans to be inurned there. All but one niche in our first columbarium have been reserved. Please remember that the Memorial Garden provides opportunities for all of us to honor loved ones. We hope to replace some of our original plantings and add another bench to the garden. We also continue to offer memorial bricks as a way to memorialize deceased family members and other parishioners. If you are considering the purchase of a niche, or a contribution in memory of a loved one, please contact Mark in the parish office.
