Victor Hannuneh is here to display carved olive wood religious works this weekend. He is a part of a group of Palestinian Christians traveling around our country selling these superb carvings. Revenue generated helps to restore justice to an oppressed Palestinian Christian minority, supports families of skilled carvers and helps in keeping a Christian presence in the Holy Land. Your purchase will be an act of social justice as well as provide an opportunity to own or give as gifts original folk art from Bethlehem.

Liturgical Ministers for April 13-16

Ministry for Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday Masses:

Ministry Sign-up is available at the church during Mass times, and online outside of Mass times.

Please sign up for ministries for the services you will attend.

Care for Creation by Recycling

Who: Lots of people including YOU! Bring your weekly recyclables to the parish recycle barns. Approximately 11 people volunteer and take their turn (one week a month) to unload the recyclables and then bring them to either: Steel Etc. 1408 52nd St. N., or Pacific Steel & Recycling 1624 12th Ave. N. If you would like to volunteer (once a month – or less) please contact Cindy at the parish office 452-6491, ext 208. We do this for your convenience & do not profit greatly. If you can take your items to the above, you are doing the same work that we are! It removes one step.

Where: South of Sts. Peter & Paul Center along the north edge of the parking lot. There are two sheds next to the small green dumpster. The shed with the three doors is where you can put Newspapers, Cardboard, and Metal. Open 24/7.

What: Newspapers shredded paper, office paper, magazines, phone books. (Kraft paper – like grocery bags need to go in the cardboard section. Cardboard corrugated and cereal & food boxes, please no greasy boxes (boxes like a pizza box have oil and grease that cannot be recycled). Metal aluminum.

We cannot take plastic including spiral document binders, bottles, wrappers, utensils, etc.

Palm Sunday Encounter our neighbors: We encounter Jesus this week in Jerusalem, a community he knew well. We prayerfully enter into our own communities too, encountering those who are hungry and thirsty, and others who need our help. How does our Lenten journey motivate us to serve those we meet in our daily lives?

Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Our local community receives 25% of our total collection. This year the amount will go to St. Dismas Prison Ministry.

Stewardship

As we walk the memory Mother Church during Holy Week, please remember to pray for our poor.

Thank you to those of you who plan to come to spring clean at the Monsignor House on Saturday April 22 from 9:00-11:00. Anyone else who wants to help on Saturday APRIL 22 at 9:00 a.m. please call and leave a message for Kathie at 781-5033.

"As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, this man they pressed into service to carry his cross." Matthew 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him "carry his cross". These opportunities aren't usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person's needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

♩ Musicians Rehearse on Wednesdays, in the church. 7-7:45: Weekend music plus Choral with parts.

(Enter through the side door, around to the right.) All voices and most instruments are welcome to help lead the music. Call Mary Dupuis for details.

Liturgical Bits and Bytes ~ Eco-Palms: Stewardship & Justice Environmentally and Socially Responsible Palms for the Easter Season. Why should my congregation buy eco-palms? Eco-palms are sustainably harvested and fairly traded. That means the money you spend on the palms is directly benefiting the communities where the palms are harvested. The extra nickel you spend per palm can send young girls to school, employ women, and build community centers. The palms are also being harvested in an environmentally friendly way. These new harvesting practices ensure that the same quality palms you see today will be there for years to come. Purchasing these palms protects the forests they are grown in.

Prayer from Maya Angelou "Christians"

When I say... "I am a Christian"
I am not shouting "I'm clean livin"
I'm whispering "I was lost,
Now I'm found and forgiven."

When I say "I am a Christian"
I'm not bragging of success
I'm admitting I have failed
And need GOD to clean my mess

One Minute Meditations

St. Zita of Lucca

Born to poor pious parents in Monsagrati, Italy.

St. Zita became the servant of the wealthy Patinelli family when she was twelve. For her hard work, piety, and generosity, she was despised by her fellow servants and overburdened by her employers. Eventually, her love and humility won over her enemies, and she was given charge of all household affairs. Famous for helping the sick, the poor, and the imprisoned, she is the patroness of domestic workers.

Heart to heart

There is nothing wrong with "pestering" God (Matthew 7:7), but think: if this were all we did with our loved ones, what quality of relationship would that be? Instead, God seeks a personal relationship with each of us — to converse with us heart-to-heart. Of course, tell him what's on your heart, but don't forget to listen to him, too.

"Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you" (James 4:8).

Healthy habits for happy hearts

Human beings are creatures of habits — we love our comfortable routines. Healthy diet and exercise practices make our bodies strong. The same is true of spiritual habits. They can strengthen our souls. The key to living a happy life is to develop healthy habits of the heart.

Humility. Humility is closely tied to gratitude and is the appropriate response to contemplating the greatness of God. Regularly meditating on God's immense acts — creating the universe out of nothing, sacrificing himself to save us — is a sure way to appreciate his love and generosity.

Prayer. Happy Catholics use prayer to connect to God and gain distance from worldly preoccupations that can weigh heavily. Develop a prayer routine that helps you "pray constantly." For example, start with a morning offering, recite the Angelus at noon, pray a daily Rosary, perform a brief examination of conscience at night, and sit in silent prayer for at least 15 minutes.

Trust. No one asks for discomfort but we get into trouble when we go out of our way to avoid it. In so doing, we can put ourselves before God and others.

Healthy Catholics know that there is no avoiding suffering and it can even be meaningful. Trusting that God loves us dearly and will use our suffering for good makes the suffering easier to bear.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

We believe that Jesus is really, truly, and substantially present in the Eucharist because we have it on divine authority. Referring to the Eucharist, Jesus told his disciples, "whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life" (John 6:54). Jesus makes this promise to us every time we receive the Eucharist at Mass. When the priest, acting in the person of Christ, consecrates the bread and wine, Jesus becomes really and truly present: Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

Take an antidote for a deadly sin

Some sins are considered especially deadly because they lead to other sins. Fortunately, the "Capital" or "Deadly" sins such as envy, pride and lust have antidotes. For example:

Envy is wanting what someone else has. Heavy doses of gratitude will help. Our peace is restored when we remember that all good gifts come from God and are glad for others' good fortune and grateful for our own.

Pride is seeking attention and honor that belong to God. Pride makes us focused on ourselves.

concerned about how we appear to others. Humility is a counter. Purposely draw attention to others, rather than yourself. Praise and thank God daily for your gifts.

Lust is focusing on sexual self-gratification rather than glorifying God. Sexuality is a gift from God and not inherently in our. Lust, however, is misuse of that gift, straying from God's intentions for us. Love, willing the good of the other, is at the heart of what it means to be human. Love for God and each other is the antidote.

from Scripture

Luke 24:13-35, Jesus hides in plain sight

Jesus was so close to Cleopas and his companion on the road to Emmaus, he could have tripped them. Yet neither man recognized him. Jesus even gave clues to his identity that he quoted from Scripture. The men were too caught up in the pain and disappointment of the crucifixion. Only when he broke bread with them did they see Jesus for who he was. Then he was gone from their sight.

Both Cleopas and his friend had formed such clear ideas of what they wanted Jesus to be that they failed to see him for who he was. They expected a warrior king and almost missed the universal savior. Aren't we like that, too? Don't we have such expectations of what we want God to be that we miss who he really is?

Christ's presence in our lives isn't revealed so much by the song of angels as the whisper of a prayer. Taking the time to be alone with God, to read Scripture and seek him in the people around us will help us uncover Christ's presence everywhere.

Q & A Why are there religious orders?

Historically, religious orders were founded in response to a need within the Church. Each order receives a special grace from the Holy Spirit, called a charism, which helps to build up the Church. For example, the charism of the Sisters of Life is to protect human life in all its stages.

There are two "kinds" of religious orders: contemplative and active. Members of contemplative orders live apart from the world in closed-off communities. They devote themselves entirely to prayer. Members of the active orders do their work in the world, though there is often a contemplative element to their life as well.

Religious life is "a permanent state of life recognized by the Church, entered freely in response to the call of Christ to perfection... characterized by the profession of... [vows]" (Catechism of the Catholic Church). All religious orders have the mission to spread the Gospel by how they live. They vow to live in poverty, chastity, and obedience so they can dedicate their lives, hearts, and minds completely to God's service.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 1 – St. Hugh of Grenoble (1132). St. Hugh was the bishop of Grenoble, France, and as bishop, he worked hard to reform his diocese of corruption. St. Hugh was also the friend and patron of St. Bruno, giving him the land where the Grand Chartreuse was built. With his help, St. Bruno founded the Carthusian order.

April 9 – Palm Sunday. The Sunday before Easter is called Palm Sunday and recalls Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, when he was greeted by crowds waving palms and cheering.

"Honor to the Son of David: Hissed is he who comes in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest!" (Matthew 21:5). It marks the beginning of Holy Week.

April 24 – St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen (1622). In his native Prussia, St. Fidelis became a lawyer and championed the poor and oppressed. He joined the Franciscans. During the Protestant Reformation, St. Fidelis worked hard to bring people back to the Catholic faith. He was martyred by an angry mob.
