Stewardship

 “Kindness and Truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss.” (Ps 85) Today I pray blessings for all of our Church; our Church worldwide and our Church local. My time in the Philippines gives me pause to pray blessings for everyone. This weekend our readings are filled with the message of blessing. It does not matter where poverty resides whether in Great Falls or in Malaysia. It matters that as Christians we address it through our prayer and our actions; through our thoughts and our words. It matters that we care! Please consider working in the Family Promise Monsignor House. We will host again in August. We would love to work alongside you at the Monsignor House. If you have been thinking about this please call Kathie & leave a message @ 781.5033.

Eagle Scout Project

Thanks to Caimin Boland and his Boy Scout Eagle Project we have three new planters in the Holy Spirit Parish Community Garden. The project consisted of about 25 hours of planning and about 65 hours of working. Caimin raised more than $475 for the cost of the project and was able to assemble the required materials donated by the City of Great Falls, United Materials and Boland Well Systems. His project will double the size of the garden significantly increasing the amount of vegetable production. Caimin would like to thank Jacob and Caleb Mee, Troy Child, Boland Well Systems, and Parishioners of Holy Spirit for their help with the project.

Liturgical Bits and Bytes: Confiteor Near the beginning of Mass, the community acknowledges its sinfulness and dependence on God’s mercy. One option is for all to recite the Confiteor, the prayer that begins, “I confess to almighty God.” As people admit their sin, they strike their breast.

The Confiteor is an old prayer, but its current placement in the Mass is an innovation. Prior to the Second Vatican Council, the priest recited the Confiteor by himself, one of several prayers at the foot of the altar that introduced the Mass, and the servers repeated it after him. The people prayed the Confiteor later, just before receiving communion. This was because for many years, people did not receive communion at Mass frequently. When they received communion outside of Mass—for example, when they were sick—they said the Confiteor first. As communion at Mass became more common, the Confiteor came with it. So essentially, a communion service had been inserted into the priest’s Mass, as if the people’s communion had nothing to do with the priest’s communion or the sacrifice preceding it. The priest even distributed communion from the tabernacle rather than the newly consecrated bread and wine on the altar.

In the revisions of the Mass following the Council, the Confiteor became one of three options for the penitential act near the beginning of Mass. The Confiteor was removed from the communion rite, where it interrupted the natural flow of events. It remained at the beginning, but as one option rather than an obligatory prayer. It was offered to the entire assembly to recite rather than to the priest alone. This enabled everyone to participate in the Mass from the very start as the priestly people. One way people participate consciously is to acknowledge to one another and to God that they have sinned, to say aloud, “I confess.” Paul Turner
