- Access to the common good that all can work & grow in fair working conditions
- Supports just practices keeps solidarity with our human family
- Rights are respected

This Week! All are welcome!

Prayer Shawls are made with prayer to give to one who we wish to surround, cover, and comfort in prayer. If you know of someone who could use one please come to the parish office to pick one up. If you would like to knit one, yarn is available. Sponsored by the Parish Nurses.

Stewardship

On page 191 in his The Joy of the Gospel by Pope Francis he writes on the renewed missionary impulse: "What is needed is the ability to cultivate an interior space which can give a Christian meaning to commitment and activity." Family Promise needs the backup of prayer. It cannot succeed without that healthy component of Christian life. Our relationship with Jesus is the reason we are called to serve the homeless in our community. If you have not begun your prayer for the homeless please consider doing so today. Our families are dependent on the grace that the Holy Spirit provides for our tough world to be softened. We would love to work alongside you at the Monsignor House. If you have been thinking about this please call Kathie & leave a message @ 781.5033.

Liturgical Bits and Bytes: Confiteor Near the beginning of Mass, the community acknowledges its sinfulness and dependence on God's mercy. One option is for all to recite the Confiteor, the prayer that begins, "I confess to almighty God." As people admit their sin, they strike their breast.

The Confiteor is an old prayer, but its current placement in the Mass is an innovation. Prior to the Second Vatican Council, the priest recited the Confiteor by himself, one of several prayers at the foot of the altar that introduced the Mass, and the servers repeated it after him. The people prayed the Confiteor later, just before receiving communion. This was because for many years, people did not receive communion at Mass frequently. When they received communion outside of Mass—for example, when they were sick—they said the Confiteor first. As communion at Mass became more common, the Confiteor came with it. So essentially, a communion service had been inserted into the priest's Mass, as if the people's communion had nothing to do with the priest's communion or the sacrifice preceding it. The priest even distributed communion from the tabernacle rather than the newly consecrated bread and wine on the altar.

In the revisions of the Mass following the Council, the Confiteor became one of three options for the penitential act near the beginning of Mass. The Confiteor was removed from the communion rite, where it interrupted the natural flow of events. It remained at the beginning, but as one option rather than an obligatory prayer. It was offered to the entire assembly to recite rather than to the priest alone. This enabled everyone to participate in the Mass from the very start as the priestly people. One way people participate consistently is to acknowledge to one another and to God that they have sinned, to say aloud, "I confess." Paul Turner
