Stewardship

Thank you to those of you who were able to come and clean last Saturday at the Monsignor House. It is all ready for our homeless families to move in for a week. Some people have asked why we do not have mattresses on the bunk-beds located on the main floor of the house or why we do not have beds upstairs. The National Family Promise Program set up the process we use. By having cots available churches that use their religious education centers have access to beds. The mattresses have covers that are bedbug and lice proof and mattress pads that protect the covers as well as the families who use the beds. When a family moves to their own home the mattress covers are washed and are clean for the next mattresses that will be used. The mattress pads are removed and washed weekly so the beds are kept safe for the families to use them.

This week the Monsignor House at 2810 Central will be open daily at 4:00 pm. Patsie Thomas or Kathy Remington will be there to welcome our guests as well as create a warm, hospitable environment for anyone who visits the Monsignor House during our hosting week. The front door will be open so come on in and say hi. If you have been thinking about helping with Family Promise but need to ask some questions please call Kathie Malby and leave a message at 781-5033.

Worship

Mary Dupuis 452-6491 ex. 206 mdupuis@holyspiritgf.org

Liturgical Bits and Bytes: Eucharistic Prayer I: The first Eucharistic Prayer is lengthy and ponderous. Its repetitive structure so differs from the other prayers that it can be hard to follow. Yet throughout our history as a church, the Roman rite has used no other eucharistic prayer more frequently. Inspired by St. Ambrose in the fourth century, it became the only eucharistic prayer permissible in the Roman liturgy until the Second Vatican Council. Having no preface of its own, it accepted one chosen for the feast, season or occasion. The rest of the prayer remained unchanged since about the seventh century and assumed the title "canon" because it was the only one. Now because we have so many eucharistic prayers, it is less accurate to call any of them a "canon."

The prayer balances across the account of the Last Supper. We pray for the living in the first half, for the dead in the second. We ask intercession from some saints in the first half, and from others in the second. The prayer never included an explicit appeal to the Holy Spirit, which caused some controversy among the Eastern rites noted for their devotion to the third person of the Trinity. Consequently, every single eucharistic prayer approved since Vatican II includes an explicit "epiclesis"—a request for the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ.

Although fixed in form, Prayer I offers internal options. The prefaces change. The lists of the saints may be abbreviated. Many subsections conclude with an optional formula: "Through Christ our Lord. Amen." Prayer I also permits a special acknowledgment of some feasts such as Christmas, Holy Thursday and Easter.

Before Vatican II, Pope John XXIII authorized one last change to the Roman canon: He included Joseph among the list of saints. A few years after the council, the memorial acclamation was added as well. Eucharistic Prayer I is admittedly hard to follow, but its endurance gives testimony to the timelessness of the Catholic faith.

You are invited! "Living your Strengths" Small Group

Would you like to be a part of a small group that will meet to discover our God-given talents and learn to turn them into strengths? The "Living Your Strengths" program is breathing fresh air into Catholic churches throughout our country. By discovering and better understanding our natural, God-given talents, we grow spiritually in Christian stewardship, become more satisfied, and better understand and accept the differences in each other. We also come to understand where we are best suited to serve Christ and His Church. Three new groups of 6-8 people each will meet for five weekly sessions, beginning in Sept. Meeting days and times will be determined by each individual group. You are invited to join! To sign up, please call Mary W at the parish office, 452-6491. All are welcome!

Do you have an hour to spare?

As many of you know, over a year ago, Fr Dick started a campaign for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The purpose was to pray for vocations. It was a twenty four hours a day/seven day a week proposal. The response was good but left many unfilled hours. I am proposing to start with a forty six hour period of time. If the response is good, we can expand. I would like to start at 7:00 pm Sunday evening and go to 4:00 pm on Tuesday evening, ending just before Mass.

Some of you are faithfully keeping your hours you originally signed up for and if it is a hardship for you to change your hour, you may keep it. But I am hopeful that we can start by filling a forty eight period of time. There will be a sign up sheet after the Masses this weekend. Please consider this opportunity. A holy hour, once a week is a great occasion for us to grow closer to our Lord, and your sacrifice will be greatly rewarded. Thank you for your consideration. We will also need to have people willing to serve as monitors for a period of time, perhaps eight hour periods, as well as people willing to fill in when needed. Also more than one person may sign up for the same hour. Thank you for your consideration with this endeavor.

Thank you and God Bless you,

Fr Doug Kemp
