Hops and Hope

Our young adult group is be gearing up for another great year. Watch this space for more information in the coming weeks.

Holy Spirit School

Holy Spirit Catholic School still has room for this school year! If you've wondered about a Private, Catholic school education for your child, you should check us out! Our students are noticeably prepared when they leave HSCS, with a well rounded education rooted in principles of faith, knowledge and service. We worship together at weekly Mass, take part in community service projects and offer a competitive sports program allowing opportunities to compete in basketball, cross-country, football, volleyball and track! With smaller class sizes, our teachers really get to know their students, and our families find a community here...with a supportive staff and fellow parents that share their family values! These days, it truly does take a village, and we invite you to come be part of it. For more information on the school, please visit our website holyspiritgfschool.org or to schedule a tour, please call us or email Colette Longin at clongin@holyspiritgf.org. Follow us on Facebook to stay up-to-date with us! Interested in making HSCS a beneficiary of your charitable donations? There are many ways to make that happen! Through the HSCS Endowment Trust, Scholarships, Dare to Dream, and more, you can make a difference in a child's life! Visit us online to donate, or for more information, call Colette at the school.

Stewardship

The heartbeat of the Family Promise program is summed up in the words of Jesus in St. Mark's gospel: Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." We continue to work in this program because it is "hands on" work of our Jesus and it blesses our Church community, our Family Promise volunteers, our homeless guests, and ourselves.

Oftentimes we are asked what needs do we have for the 1. Monsignor House; 2. Family Promise program; 3. Homeless guests; or 4. Volunteers who car for various parts of the house and program. We need you. This is a relationship built on our shared Christian values and the needs that you see we have are the needs you can fill. People visit the Monsignor House and see things they believe are needed and they come back having filled those needs. Right now we need 4 sets of twin sized sheets, 4 twin sized blankets, 15 hand towels, and 5 kitchen towels.

Thank you to Carole Ann and Jerry Clark for the large donation of children's books. They are beautiful and it is our hope that every homeless child who comes to the Monsignor House leaves with a book of their choice. What a treasure!

If you have been thinking about helping with Family Promise but need to ask some questions please call Kathie Malby and leave a message at 781-5033.

Healing Ministry: Marriage Resolution in the Catholic Church. A covenantal marriage, in the eyes of the Church, meets certain criteria, deeper and more rooted in Christianity, than its secular equivalent. The Church requires that a couple be prepared well, that they are in this for the good and growth of one another, that they enter freely, and are open to God's gift of children. That being said, couples married in a secular ceremony may firmly believe that their civil marriage does indeed have those characteristics. They have a strong marriage, based on a faith in God's presence in their lives, and are committed to their partner, permanently and in fidelity. They are truly blessed in this time and culture. Should they feel that they would like the church to recognize their union, and make it sacramental, they may have their marriage blessed in the Catholic Church through the processes of either convalidation or sanation; their baptismal records will reflect their decision and they will have what the church may call a regular marriage.

When a marriage fails, there may have been conditions at the time of the wedding that hinder or preclude any of the conditions that the Church deems crucial to a sacramental covenant. The process of annulment is provided for such situations. Sometimes referred to as a "Catholic divorce", marriage annulment (decree of invalidity) is connected, at the same time, far from, the civil process. By considering the attitudes and circumstances of the couple at the time of the marriage, the diocesan office of marriage, the Tribunal, makes a determination of whether those circumstances were enough to negate the covenantal nature of the marriage. There are sometimes obvious impediments, but often, hidden and dark. Back to the "Catholic divorce" moniker ~ those who work for the diocese, including the office at the chancery and those who act as advocate-procurators, consider their work to be not a paper-pushing formality, but rather a healing ministry. Walking with a person through the process, listening to and guiding them, is a privilege and an honor; the trust is both necessary and treasured. The process of examining one's life and choices is difficult and valuable, no matter the outcome of the petition. A key part of this ministry is the recognition of God's presence in everyone involved.
