Stewardship

“Loving others is a spiritual force drawing us to union with God; indeed, one who does not love others ‘walks in the darkness’ (1 Jn 2:11); ‘remains in death’ (1 Jn 3:14) and ‘does not know God.’” (1 Jn 4:8). - Pope Francis The Joy of the Gospel pg 198. The gospel reminds us that our God became human to immerse Himself in our humanity, living as we live with parents, extended family, church, and having company to visit just as we do. Our God was not imitating our humanity but became human to heal, strengthen, and save us. God’s knowledge of us requires a response from us. We need to immerse ourselves in our God “in order to know, love and serve God in this world and the next.” (Baltimore catechism). Family Promise is one of many opportunities to love others and grow in that spiritual force that draws us to union with God.

Stop by the Monsignor House at 2810 Central from noon-2:00 pm on Friday, January 11. Family Promise is all about eliminating homelessness on family at a time. Have a cup of coffee and take a tour, talk about what you can do in Family Promise, or visit about life in general. For information about Family Promise call Kathie Malby and leave a message at 781-5033. She will return your call as soon as she can.

You Can Apply the Bible to Your Life!

If you want a better understanding of our faith, and a deeper relationship with God, then you should join us for James: Pearls for Wise Living, beginning on 27 January 2019. By being a part of this study, you will not only benefit personally, but you will also help to bring about a profound renewal in our parish as we all grow closer to Christ.

The letter of James offers wisdom for ordinary Christians in everyday life, It speaks to those of us who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and our faith. James: Pearls for Wise Living applies the wisdom of James to the present. For anyone who struggles to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

The study will include a series of ten videos presented by Jeff Cavins. Each video will be preceded by a lively group discussion.

Holy Spirit Parish will begin James: Pearls for Wise Living on 27 January, 1:00 – 3:00 PM and end on 7 April

This study will be led by Father Doug and Deacon Pete.

For more information or to register for the study visit the registration table after Mass or contact Deacon Pete at 899-7383 or deaconpete@holyspiritgf.org.
