Grief Support

And Presentation by Jim Capp

All are welcome: Tuesday, January 22 at 4 pm in the Parish Conference Room and 7 pm in the RCIA room at Sts. Peter & Paul

In last week's Gospel we heard God proclaim to Jesus, "You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased." Luke 3:22. Today we hear from Isaiah "You shall be called my delight...for the Lord delights in you." 62:4. The second reading expounds, but not exhausts, the many many gifts and potential for each one of us! Are we not made for goodness? Jesus' first miracle in today's Gospel Jn. 2:1-11 and all his miracles are for goodness!

These are just a few examples from scripture to show how bountiful and plentiful God's goodness is available to us to help us use our gifts, strengths, and talents! How shall we respond? First with joyful participation in the Glory of God here at Mass! Then, we "go out to spread the Good News!" How do we do that? A smile, listen with eye contact, hold a door, ministries, and stewardship. Here are some current needs.

- Visit the sick and homebound
- Drive the homebound to Mass
- Pick up recycling from the bins
- Sell Fair Trade goods after 11 am Mass

This is your call! Contact Cindy for more info. 452-6491 ext 208

Stewardship

Thank you goes to Kathey Hodges for coordinating the sign ups for Family Promise Holy Spirit. Thank you to all of you who signed up and are willing and able to serve the week of our next hosting. It takes many hands and hearts to serve our guests who come to us for a hand up. Thank you also goes to Kathy Remington and Patsie Thomas for coordinating the Ministry Fair table. It takes many leaders to care for Family Promise in our parish. It is a program that belongs to the whole community. With the coordination that the leadership provides, our community experiences fairly smooth and efficient transitions from one task to another. Thank you to the leadership for serving during the host week, for cot teams, for laundry, and for our deaf community who pray for Family Promise. You make the "work easy and the burden light."

An organization grows by accepting new volunteers. Some of you want to go for training and the next one is at 1019 Central (Family Promise Great Falls Headquarters) on Wednesday January 23 from 6:00-7:15 pm. It is open to everyone who wants to learn more or work directly with guests. To learn more about what you can do in Family Promise Holy Spirit, give Kathie Malby a call at 781-5033. She will return your call as soon as she can.

Holy Spirit Parish Health Tips from the Parish Nurses

Healthy Mind, Body, and Spirit

It is the time of year again when people make resolutions to exercise more, eat a balanced diet and be healthier. This year you are encouraged to consider emotional and spiritual health along with your physical health. Stress management and self-care are important components in our overall health. Research shows it is important for people to recharge and restore body, mind, and spirit for overall health and well-being.

Self-care is nurturing the body, mind and spirit to optimize personal health and well-being. The core of self-care is about being good stewards of our body, mind and spirit so we can be the best version of ourselves. God calls us to be good stewards to ourselves and others. When we are recharged and restored, we can offer the best of ourselves to the people we care about. It has been said, "We can't give what we don't have" and when we are depleted spiritually, mentally or physically, we are unable to provide the care and support to others that we desire.

Physical self-care suggestions:

Eat a whole food balanced diet with a variety of fruits and vegetables

Drink enough water

Exercise at least 20 minutes a day

Sleep a minimum of 7 hours at night

Make time to relax

Take time to breathe deep during the day

Mental and Spiritual suggestions:

Make time to participate in things you enjoy

Find joy in the world around you

Treat yourself with kindness and respect

Turn off electronics

Engage in stress-reducing activities (excluding T.V. or screen time)

Make time for daily retreat, prayer, or meditation

Become aware of the present moment

Say an act of faith

Pray the Rosary

It is vitally important to nurture our soul and spiritual health in addition to physical health. There is no one who deserves your love and compassion more than you. When we quiet our minds, our lips, and our hearts, we can hear the voice of God.
