"Faith in the resurrection of Christ never misleads us, and hope in our own resurrection never deceives us, because God the Father both re-stored our Lord to life and will restore us to life too by virtue of his power." St. Bede the Venerable

Thank you to all who attended the Palm Sunday Breakfast. With the proceeds, we were able to send a check to Jacob Wilkins to help off-set the cost of his Seminary studies. We so appreciate your generosity!

Our annual Spring event, Cow Pie Moolah, is coming up on Sunday, May 19th! Buy a chance to win $10,000...it all depends where our guest Cow decides to drop the pie! Join us for a fun-filled day, including a carnival for the kids. BBQ dinner, beer garden for the adults and so much more! Buy tickets ($20) from your favorite HSCS student...all proceeds benefit our local, Catholic schools! You can also call or stop by the HSCS office to purchase. 761-5775;

We are still registering for the 2019-2020 school year! We invite you to come see for yourself why we're known for our tradition of excellence in education. Our smaller classes mean teachers can accommodate all learning levels and give special attention where needed, while supporting the spiritual growth of their students...and fostering and encouraging the same principles your family values at home. Questions? Please call Colette Longin, 761-5775, or email clongin@holyspiritgf.org.

Did you benefit from the gifts of a Catholic education? Consider making HSCS the beneficiary of a charitable donation today, and help continue the gift for another generation of students! You can even donate online at our website: www.holyspiritgfschool.org.

Stewardship

“...but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.” Learning to recognize Jesus is sometimes a difficult thing for us as Christians. Our first brothers and sisters who followed Jesus when He preached on earth, our beloved saints, the teachings of our Church and those who nurture us in our faith, have given us clues to realize Jesus here on earth. Pope Francis in The Joy of the Gospel, on page 199 writes: “Whenever we encounter another person in love, we learn something new about God.” Learning something new about God helps us recognize Jesus whether in the breaking of the bread at our Holy Eucharist or breaking bread at supper with a family at the Monsignor House. Jesus reveals himself to us whenever we seek him through the compassion we share in caring for others. Mother Theresa said that if you cannot feed 100 people then try to feed just 1 person.

We begin hosting at the Monsignor House at 2810 Central this Sunday, May 5 and we will have a family of families with us until Sunday, May 12. Please pray for our hosting week and the homeless guests we serve. At this time we have 1 family of 7 people.

We know homeless families are out there and they need homes. Please pray they find their way to this program. If you would like to take a tour of the Monsignor House at 2810 Central, or want to learn more about Family Promise Holy Spirit give Kathie Malby a call at 781-5033 and leave a message. She will return your call as soon as she can.

On November 8, 2018, Fr. Lou Krauth was arrested and later charged with Receipt of Child Pornography. He recently pled guilty to the charge and will be sentenced in Federal Court later this summer.

He requested the following note be in parish bulletins.

A Timely Apology

To be publicly exposed as the sinner I always knew I am is certainly a humbling and devastating experience. I confess my guilt and accept the consequences. But this is ultimately a matter between God and me, needing penance and repentance. However, what breaks my heart is the awareness that I have damaged the public trust and diminished the reputation of my beloved Church. Even more, I have disappointed and upset so many dear and devoted friends, to whom I humbly apologize. My remorse is so profound that I do not dare to ask for forgiveness, only for a measure of compassion. The Church is holy, I am not.
Fr. Lothar “Lou” Krauth

You are cordially invited to the 23rd Annual Mothers' Day Brunch at the Ursuline Centre on Sunday May 12, 10 am-2 pm. LIVING YOUR STRENGTHS – YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN A SMALL GROUP

Are you interested in an opportunity for personal growth, especially spiritually?

YOU ARE INVITED to join a five-meeting program to help you discover your natural God-given talents and learn to turn them into strengths.

The program, developed by the Gallup organization, and adapted for the Catholic Church, is used in multiple Catholic churches throughout the United States. By discovering and better understanding our natural talents, we become more satisfied with our lives, and better understand and accept the differences in people, especially our spouses and family members. We come to understand why some jobs fit us and others do not.

As followers of Christ, we come to understand where we are best suited to serve Christ and His Church. WE ARE THE BODY OF CHRIST, but what part am I? Where do I most comfortably fit? Come and join your fellow parishioners for this five-week discovery.

TO SIGN UP: We will be forming new groups of 6-8 people who will meet for five weekly sessions, beginning this spring and/or summer. Meeting days and times will be determined by each individual group. To sign up for one of these small groups (remember, space is limited), please call Mary Wingerter, Parish Secretary, at 452-6491. All are welcome!

Going through this short study will often lead to greater personal insight, drawing us closer to our Lord and serving Him. What a tremendous way to live a life of stewardship in the understanding of our faith, our giftedness, and our intrinsic value as brothers and sisters in Christ and as sons and daughters of a living, loving, and merciful God!

One Minute Meditations

St. John Baptist de Rossi

Born in Voltaggio, Italy, St. John Baptist de Rossi was born to devout, middle class parents. Being an excellent student, he was invited to join the Roman College at the age of thirteen! Ten years later, John was ordained a priest. He spent his days serving prisoners, workers, and the patients of the local hospitals and his nights ministering to the poor people of the street. He died of illness, worn out by his labors.

Turn to Mary

During the month of May, we honor Mary, the Mother of God (and ours, too). Turn to her for guidance and protection and she will bring you to her Son: "Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided."

"His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'" (John 2:5).

Add more joy to your life

Joy is more than a feeling – it comes from making choices that are pleasing to God. Try these tips to add joy to your life.

Give three compliments every day. "Like golden apples in silver settings are words spoken at the proper time" (Proverbs 25:11).

Look for the silver lining in every cloud. "Even though you meant harm to me, God meant it for good, to achieve his present end, the survival of many people" (Genesis 50:20).

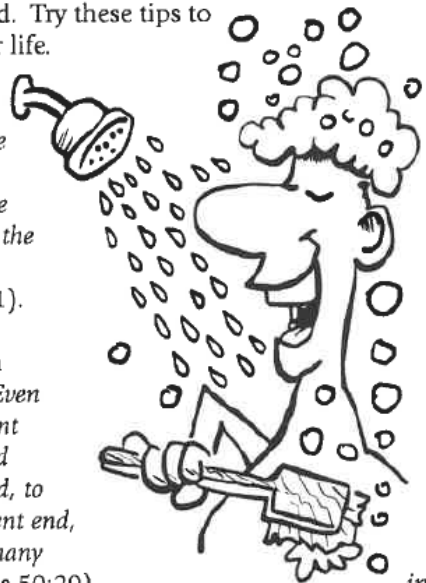

Make the best of any situation. "We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Tip generously, give freely to the needy. "He who confers benefits will be amply enriched, and he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed" (Proverbs 11:25).

Say, "thank you," often. "In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

Sing in the shower. "But I shall sing of your strength, extol your love at dawn, for you are my fortress, my refuge in time of trouble" (Psalm 59:17).

Trust God's judgment more than your own. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

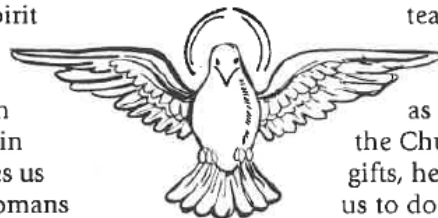

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics invoke the Holy Spirit?

As the Third Person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit is invoked every time we make the Sign of the Cross. In Baptism, he dwells in our souls and makes us children of God (Romans 8:15). He makes us receptive to God's grace. He also teaches and helps us to pray. He guides and protects us, just as he guides and protects the Church. Through his gifts, he inspires and enables us to do the good we ought to do.

What will you keep after Easter?

Lent is a chance to take a look at our lives, jettison what is bad, and keep what is good beyond the celebration of Easter. What will you keep after the Easter season?

Fasting? Skipping a meal and spending the time in prayer is a great way to prepare for an important decision or a critical task we are about to take on. It's a way of saying, "God's will be done."

Doing more with less? The simplicity of Lent reminds us of how much we have and how little we really need. Keep going through the closets and bookshelves of your life and give away what you don't absolutely need.

Thinking of others? American Catholics have more than any Catholics in the world today. When we feel hunger or can't buy everything we want, we can think of our brothers and sisters around the world who are hungry or needy all the time. Being Catholics unites us to the one Body of Christ no matter where we are.

from Scripture

John 14:23-29, Jesus keeps his promises

This Gospel reading comes from Jesus' Farewell Speech at the Last Supper. After spending three years together, he had to prepare the close-knit group for his Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension into Heaven. Yet, before he ascended, he promised to remain with them always (Matthew 28:20).

Jesus assured his disciples—and us today—that, even though they wouldn't see him, he would continue to be invisibly but powerfully present to them if they kept his word. He and his Father would dwell in them by grace. He would send the Holy Spirit to guide and comfort them. He gave them the gift of his peace, and he promised that he would return to them.

It's tempting to think that being Catholic would be easier if we could see Jesus and hear his voice. In fact, he continues to be spiritually present in his Church: in her worship, prayer, sacraments, and charitable outreach. He is especially present in the Eucharist—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity (CCC, #1374). We don't have to go back in time. We see him at every Mass.

Q & A Can I have a devotion to Mary and still worship God well?

One question frequently asked of Catholics is, "Why do you worship Mary?" In fact, we don't worship Mary. Worship is the adoration we give to God where we acknowledge him as Creator, Savior, and Lord. Mary is a creature like us. She is not divine, so we can't worship her.

However, we can honor her. She is the Mother of God, since Jesus is God (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #495). Secondly, on the Cross, Jesus gave her to us as our mother and entrusted us to her care (John 19:26-27). Thirdly, we honor her for the good she did and still does for us, and for her holiness.

God is not jealous of our devotion to Mary, just as an artist wouldn't be jealous if his greatest masterpieces were praised. Turning to Mary for her intercession isn't a problem either. Mary's role (and ours) is to help get us to Heaven, which is exactly what God wants, too. Be rest assured, Mary always leads us to her Son, Jesus.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 13 – Our Lady of Fatima (1917): The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three children near Fatima, Portugal and asked that they pray the Rosary for peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners and for the conversion of Russia.

May 15 – St. Isidore the Farmer (1170). Born in Madrid to a poor farming family, he married St. Mary de la Cabeza and worked for a wealthy landowner. He spent many hours in prayer and caring for the sick and poor. It is said his food baskets were never empty.

May 25 – Pope St. Gregory VII (1085). Pope Gregory worked to eliminate corruption in the Church and defended it from attacks on its authority. For this he suffered and died in exile.

May 30 – Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord (1st Century). This solemnity marks the completion of Jesus' mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven.

Note: In many dioceses, observance of Ascension has been moved to the following Sunday.
