Stewardship

Monsignor House Reflection: Forgiveness and love go hand in hand. In the Gospel message today, our brother, Mark, writes about 3 aspects of what we need to do to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. There is the young man who is having difficulty letting go of great riches, the surprise of the Apostles that someone so rich might have difficulty in entering the Kingdom, and the curiosity of the Apostles on what happens to them when they have so little. They are assured that their salvation is resting in God’s decision to save. God sees their devotion and emphasis on carrying out Jesus’ mission here on earth. Love and forgiveness are the simple character traits that will make the cut. Our challenge is always: do I forgive those who are different from me and love those whose life experiences are different from my own life? Do I judge or do I pray for those whose lives are lived on the margins of life? Do I let go of my opinions about the poor and seek understanding for their plight? When we love those in need, those who have lived and moved on from the Monsignor House, we honor the mission Jesus came to reveal to us.

Needs and thanks for the Monsignor House: Thank you for the support you are giving to the Family Promise Great Falls program as it begins its return after 2020. Thank you for the phone calls on what to donate and where to take your donations. If you have questions regarding the Monsignor House, feel free to call Kathie Malby at 406.781.5033. Please leave a message and she will return your call as soon as she can.

Family Promise Great Falls needs: 1019 Central, 564-5267. Help at the Day Center Monday through Friday from 10-12. We need volunteers to supervise families taking showers and doing laundry. We need hospitality volunteers at the Day Center, and help clean the Day Center. Bring frozen microwavable meals. Donate silverware.

What is the Catholic understanding of “Justification”? (CCC 1987-95)

“The grace of the Holy Spirit has the power to justify us, that is, to cleanse us from sin and to communicate to us the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ and through Baptism” (1987). Our Sacramental life in Christ is a gradual perfecting of ourselves in order that we might partake of the divine life. In this life, we are “justified,” which detaches us from sin, accepting God’s righteousness by the merits of Christ’s Passion (not our own), establishes cooperation between God’s grace and man’s freedom. Justification is the most excellent work of God’s love, manifest in Jesus and granted by the Holy Spirit, the master of the interior life. “But now that you have been freed from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit that you have leads to sanctification, and its end is eternal life” (Romans 6:22).
