"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing." ~2 Timothy 7-8

Even though this was a short week at Holy Spirit Catholic School we had full days! Monday was All Saints Day, 6th grade ministered a beautiful Mass and 2nd grade dressed up as their favorite saints. We had our annual Fall book fair to support our amazing library and 1st grade has been starting to prepare for their Thanksgiving program. We ended the week with Parent-Teacher conferences, phew!

Gala tickets are selling fast! The classrooms are putting together some amazing baskets for silent auction and there will be a homemade cribbage board up for bids too! Come and join in the fun at Gala! If you are looking for a way to help at the Gala, we are still looking for bakers for the dessert auction. Please contact Jenifer at 761-5775 ext 222.

Looking for flexible work hours? How about becoming a substitute teacher at Holy Spirit Catholic School? If interested, please contact the school office, 761-5775.

Volunteers and Christian Service

Cindy Eultgen 452-6491 ext. 208

cindy@holyspiritgf.org

Many Dioceses around the country have a handbook for ministry to the homebound. Below are two quotes from such resources available to all parishes. They are two of my favorite ways to ponder what parish ministry is and what it isn't.

“We should not view ministry to the home-bound solely as a service TO the sick.

This is a ministry of the Body of Christ TO the Body of Christ. It is the members building up one another.

Ministry TO the Sick is just as much a ministry BY the sick.

Those ministering, and the assembly itself, are blessed and built up, by the presence of those to whom one ministers.”

Just because an individual is ill, homebound, or unable to be present at the assembly of the baptized, that person does not stop being a member of the Body of Christ.

Just because a baptized member of Christ is sick and homebound, that person does not stop functioning as a member of the priesthood of Christ.

Stewardship

Monsignor House Reflection: The month of November includes the following important events: All Saints Day, All Souls Day, Thanksgiving, and the 1st Sunday of Advent. With the needs so great in the world let us be encouraged by the messages of the saints regarding service: St. Francis de Sales said: There is nothing small in the service of God. And, St. Theresa of Calcutta said: Let us touch the dying, the poor, the lonely and the unwanted according to the graces we have received and let us not be ashamed or slow to do the humble work. Thank you, Holy Spirit Parish, for your services to the many needs in our Church and our City. Thank you for all that you do for the Monsignor House.

Needs and thanks for the Monsignor House: We are running low on paper products and cleaning items. We can use toilet paper, paper towels, napkins, foil, plastic wrap, dish detergent, clothing detergent, purex or Clorox for clothes and cleaning, comet, windex spray and hand soap. If we forgot anything and you think it should be part of the list, we will appreciate whatever you give. If you have questions regarding the Monsignor House, feel free to call Kathie Malby at 406.781.5033. Please leave a message and she will return your call as soon as she can.

Mary Wingerter—Ministry Scheduler

The November schedule is complete. Please log into Ministry Scheduler to find yours. As we finish this Liturgical year we want to thank all the ministers who came forward to help during these difficult times. We look forward to Advent and the new year to welcome even more of you! Please look for the sign up sheets in the pews. We welcome any and all interested to help us bring the Liturgy to our community!

Catechism Corner

CATECHISM CORNER

Are angels real? Do we become angels when we die? (CCC 328-336, 990-1019) In the Creed we profess God to be Creator of “heaven and earth”; “of all things visible and invisible.” The angels, though they can be made manifest by God’s Will, are pure spiritual beings of the invisible order. As such they have no “corporeal” nature (328). According to St. Augustine ‘angel’ is the title of their office—servants and messengers of God—while ‘spirit’ would refer to their nature. Pure spiritual creatures, angels have intelligence and will surpassing in perfection all visible creatures (330). As such, though human’s have a spiritual nature as well, we can never become angels, even in heaven, because in the resurrection we will be united once more with our glorified bodies (990). Angels, having been present since creation, bless humanity by their aid and intercession, leading us away from death towards life (336). Our prayers in the Catholic liturgy echo the liturgy of the angels who constantly ferry our prayers to God’s High Altar (335).
