On Wednesday our 6th graders attended Mass at the Poor Clares Monastery, ate lunch with the sisters, and enjoyed a tour of their beautiful sanctuary! On Thursday the 4th, 5th and 6th graders got to experience the very talented Great Falls Symphony. Our wonderful staff at Holy Spirit Catholic School are always looking for fun and creative ways to teach their students.

We still have room available for the next school year! Call our Development /Admissions Director, Jenifer Thomas, today to set up a tour or schedule a shadow day for your child to experience us in action. 406-761-5775.

Want to be part of our excellent team at Holy Spirit Catholic School? We will have employment opportunities for the next school year. If interested, check out our website for job descriptions: holyspiritgfschool.org.

Fifth Week of Lent: Making A Difference

Hunger impacts millions of women, men and children around the world. Throughout Lent we have encountered communities in Guatemala, Bangladesh and Rwanda that are overcoming this problem so their members can have brighter futures. How are you working to address hunger or other injustices locally and globally? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

It is almost time! Whether you have a rice bowl or not, we will be accepting your donations on Holy Thursday and through Easter. If you can, please convert your change to a check made out to Holy Spirit Parish with Rice Bowl in the memo. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Thursday is our day to peacefully stand, walk, in front of Planned Parenthood during Lent. Time slots are for one hour between 8 am—6 pm. It is a profound experience. Contact Jennifer Wade 559-246-4723 for more info.

Stewardship

Monsignor House Reflection: As we move through our Lenten ½ way mark, it is a good time to renew our commitment to our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. No one lives life perfectly. No one follows a commitment perfectly. The best we can hope for is to be consistent and sincere in our endeavors to pray, to fast, and to give of our time, talent and treasure. All the giving and caring for the family in the Monsignor House has enriched and strengthened the lives of each of us who have shared ourselves in some way by serving in and for the Monsignor House. Thank you, Holy Spirit community, for your consistency and sincerity in the many ways in which you care.

Monsignor House Thanks and Needs: For any questions, please call Kathie Malby at 1.406.781.5033 and leave a message. She will return your call as soon as she can.

What is the Lord’s Prayer (Our Father) all about? (CCC 2759-72) In both Matthew and Luke, we receive the story of Jesus teaching the disciples to pray: “When you pray say this” (Matthew 6:9-13, Luke 11:2-4). This prayer which the Master taught us contains within it seven petitions, which we ought to adopt in any and all prayer, and the summary of the whole Gospel (2761). It is the “most perfect of prayers” as we make our request known to God—and in the proper sequence of priority (2762). As the prayer comes from Jesus the Master Teacher, and he who models prayer perfectly in his own spiritual devotion, it is rightly called “the Lord’s Prayer” (2763). The seven petitions are as follows: “Hallowed be thy name”; “Thy Kingdom come”; “Thy Will be done on Earth...”; Give us this day our daily bread”; “Forgive us... as we forgive...”; “Lead us not into temptation”; “Deliver us from evil.” These petitions reflect our confidence in the salvation of Christ, and, therefore, pour forth from our souls with “blessed hope” in our own redemption through the providence of the Father, passion of the Son, and consolation of the Holy Spirit. Now through the Lord’s Prayer and its Eucharistic context in liturgy, we “look eagerly for the Lord’s return, ’until he comes”” (2772).

WorldWide Marriage Encounter Experience:
Don’t let the word “Encounter” in a negative or secular sense be a turn off or scare you away. Consider the Experience an opportunity to discover a new way to communicate about everything from the fun to the mundane, from kids to work to play. Already communicate well? Think again. We all have areas that are ‘loaded’ and can trigger a landmine. The Experience gives you tools to communicate more intimately about topics like faith, how you spend time, money, and emotional energy. Consider it an opportunity to ‘Encounter’ a new way to communicate about romance and sexuality, your values as a couple and a family. ‘Encounter’ Christ, the Divine in your relationship. Register for the Elk Mountain Experience April 22-24. Call 307.298.0617 or register on-line at wwme.org. Application fee is $100.

The BALL 2022 is Saturday, April 30th, at the Mansfield Convention Center. The BALL 2022 combines an in-person dinner and auction with the option to join the event virtually. The in-person event begins at 6 pm and features a dinner buffet from Smoked American BBQ, silent, live and dessert auctions, and Fund-the-Need. Tickets for the in-person event are $75 for an individual or $600 for a table of 8. There is not a fee to participate virtually. To purchase tickets for the in-person event or register for the virtual event, go to: greatfallscentral.org or ollschoolgfmt.org. Follow the links to the BALL 2022. Call Wes at 216-3344 or Bekah at 452-0551 for more information. The BALL supports Great Falls Central Catholic High School and Our Lady of Lourdes and is their biggest fundraiser of the year. Your support is greatly appreciated!

It’s Fish Fry Season!!!

The Knights of Columbus are ready to serve up their last delicious fish dinner on April 8 at the Knights of Columbus Hall 906 Central Ave W. $12 for Adults, $6 for ages 6-16, 5 and under free.

You are invited to sing or play an instrument at the Chrism Mass on Tuesday April 5 at 6:00 pm at St Ann’s, Music rehearsal at St Ann’s Sunday, April 3 1:30-2:30 pm. Please contact Jeanne Tonkovich 761-4565 or jtonkovich4@charter.net.

FAMILIES NEEDED
Great Falls Central Catholic High School is looking for families to host exchange students this fall. Families can be from single people to empty nesters and everything in between. With minimal requirements and big payoff, contact AnnMarie Jacobson at ajacobson@greatfallscentral.org or call 406-216-3344 to apply and for more information.

Devotions on Draft will be having a meeting on April 12th at 7 pm at The Wild Hare, located downtown at 518 Central Ave. Please join us for a beer and some reflective discussion about Easter and the Lenten Season as it draws to a close. More information can be found on Instagram and Facebook: @devotionsondraft_gf.

Parish Council of Catholic Women

It is almost Easter and that means the Palm Sunday bake sale is right around the corner! We had such a generous out-pouring of baked goods at Christmas and I hope everyone can bring some again. We will also be selling raffle tickets for a beautiful Last Supper picture from Jerusalem. $5 a chance. Our Lady of Snows Circle appreciates all the bakers, candy makers, and shoppers, we will look for you on April 9th and 10th.

One Minute Meditations

Healthy worship

Recent medical studies revealed that people who attend church at least weekly have longer life expectancies and fewer complications from illnesses or surgeries than non-churchgoers. Going to church may not protect us from health crises, but it does help us cope with them.

Empty and fill

There are times in our lives when we have to empty our minds of negativity so God can replace it with peace and joy. Each day, take time to rid yourself of anger, fear, self-pity, jealousy, and bitterness. Then look for God's gifts of peace, wisdom, friendship, forgiveness, and love.

Speak the truth

Do you have the courage to speak out against injustice or sin? Yes, when you do, you may be called "intolerant" for sharing Gospel truths, but tolerance doesn't render truth untrue. In fact, saying nothing can be worse. Christ is clear: "When your brother sins, rebuke him, and when he repents, forgive him" (Luke 17:3).

Give Sundays to God

God intended Sundays as days for worship, rest, and charity for His people. In today's world, however, it can be challenging to "keep holy the Lord's Day." Try these suggestions to recapture your Sundays for God:

Worship: Mass is a direct encounter with God. Make it the center and highlight of your day. Prepare yourself to receive Jesus in the Eucharist by going to Confession regularly and staying aware of your conscience so as to avoid sin. One of the best ways to honor Him is respond to His love with your own.

Rest: Make Sunday different from the rest of the week. Avoid unnecessary work. Finish errands and chores by sundown on Saturday. Serve leftovers or casseroles on paper plates to minimize washing up. Limit screen time, social media, online shopping.

Joy: God rested on the Seventh Day and delighted in His creation (Genesis 1:31 2:2). Find time today to do something that brings you joy. Spend time with loved ones, take a nature walk, indulge in a hobby, read a good book.

Charity: Traditionally, charitable works are performed on the Lord's Day. Consider putting money in the poor box at church, donating food or clothes to a shelter, or visiting a lonely neighbor. Don't forget, praying for others and treating them with kindness is a much needed act of charity.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

In the Apostles Creed, we profess that Jesus "descended into hell." Hades in Greek or Sheol in Hebrew. Used here, it means "the realm of the dead," not necessarily the place of punishment.

Human sin closed the gates of heaven even to righteous souls, until Christ's coming. After accomplishing our redemption on the Cross, Jesus descended to the underworld, bringing news of their salvation to the righteous souls who were waiting to enter heaven (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #631).

Why do Catholics believe Jesus "descended into hell"?

Keep Easter joy alive throughout the year

Easter Sunday celebrates Jesus' victory over death, sin, and Satan. In fact, it is the most important event in human history. This joy Easter inspires can't be contained to just one day; the Church gives us a whole season to celebrate. Try these ideas to prolong the joy of Easter.

Keep a Lenten practice that helped you grow closer to God – a small sacrifice to honor His sacrifice. For example, attend an extra Mass during the week, or perform an act of charity to share God's love.

Decorate the house. Celebrate the victory Christ won for you. Display an image of the Risen Christ in your home.

Decorate crosses and statues with white sashes. Put out bouquets of flowers (real or silk) for the garden in which Jesus rose (John 19:47).

Proclaim the Good News. Mary Magdalene was the first to share the news of the Resurrection (John 20:17). Share it, too, by wearing a cross or crucifix, saying grace in public, talking about His grace, imitating His forgiveness.

from Scripture

John 20:19-31, "Jesus, I trust in You"

The two Resurrection appearances of Jesus to His disciples in this passage highlight God's merciful love.

The first appearance was on Easter Sunday. Jesus could have abandoned His Apostles, just as they had abandoned Him in the Garden of Gethsemane, but He didn't. Instead, Jesus appeared to them and gave them His peace, His Spirit, and the power to forgive sins in His name.

The second visit was for "Doubting" Thomas, who wasn't present for the first appearance. Thomas couldn't believe that Jesus was really risen, despite the accounts of eyewitnesses.

He demanded physical proof. Jesus appeared in the Upper Room and invited Thomas to investigate. St. Thomas, moved to faith, cried out, "My Lord and my God!" (John 20:28).

This passage reminds us we can always bring our doubts, fears, and need for forgiveness to God, especially on the Sunday after Easter – Divine Mercy Sunday. To the disciples who abandoned Him, Jesus extended His peace and forgiveness. For St. Thomas who had been struggling with doubt, Jesus came in person to strengthen his faith. "Jesus, I trust in You!"

Q & A

Why do Catholics display crucifixes?

Catholics display the Crucifix because it reminds us of Jesus' sacrifice, His victory, and His love for us.

His sacrifice. Jesus willingly sacrificed Himself for us on the Cross. At every Mass, the moment of Jesus' sacrifice is made mysteriously present again in the sacrifice of the Eucharist in an unbloody manner. The Crucifix indicates that the sacrifice of the Cross and the Mass are one sacrifice (CCC #1345).

His victory. The Crucifix looks like defeat, but in fact, it's a sign of victory. Jesus' sacrifice reconciled us with God, reopened Heaven to us, and broke the grip of death, sin, and evil, and rose again in triumph.

His love. "Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). The Crucifix reveals how precious we are to God. Jesus taught us that true love seeks the good of the other. Jesus put our good first. He endured the crucifixion so we can be with Him forever in Heaven.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 5 – St. Vincent Ferrer (1419). Against his parents' wishes, St. Vincent Ferrer joined the Dominican Order. He preached through much of Europe. He was called the Angel of Judgment because his sermons aimed to prepare his listeners for judgment.

April 8 – St. Julie Billiard (1816). Born in France, St. Mary Rose Julie Billiard was devoted to the care and education of the poor. After receiving a vision of her future religious order, she later founded the Sisters of Notre Dame.

April 24 – Divine Mercy Sunday. In 1931, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina and asked that the Sunday after Easter become the "Feast of Mercy." Jesus promised special graces to those who honor him as the King of Mercy and pray The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

April 25 – St. Mark (1st century). St. Mark wrote the second Gospel, largely based on St. Peter's perspective. He accompanied Saints Paul and Barnabas on their journey through Cyprus and is credited with founding the Church of Alexandria.
