The hallways are quiet, the lockers are empty, and the lights are off at Holy Spirit Catholic School as SUMMER IS HERE! There are still some souls left working each day at our beloved school.

We were so blessed to have had such an incredible school year this year! In the beginning of the year, we were still facing the challenges of Covid but by the end of the year were seeing our families' faces again. The biggest triumph for HSCS this year was the outpouring of Service lead projects this year. If there is a time to brag this is a time! HSCS gave back to our community with donating over 300 boxes of cereal to the Food Bank, donated cold weather gear to the Grace Home for Veterans, raised over $500 for St. Ann's Soup Kitchen, our Cat/Griz food drive brought in around 1,000 lbs of food, donated over 100 toys to the Children's Receiving Home, decorated the Grace Home for Christmas, raised over $200 for the Ukraine War Relief, to name a few. Our school is paying the foundation for future philanthropists.

We are looking forward to an even more outstanding Year! We are welcoming over 40 new students to Holy Spirit Catholic School. We are excited to offer new programs to our students this coming school year. 5th Graders will be exploring the science world through STARBASE Montana, our middle school will be delighting us with their culinary skills, and we are looking into adding more electives for our 6th—8th grade middle schoolers.

Want to join our school family? Then contact Jenifer Thomas at 406.761.5775 or jthomas@holyspiritgf.org for more information about Holy Spirit Catholic School.

Who is the Holy Spirit and what is His role in the Church? (CCC 687-741) The Holy Spirit is the voice of God spoken through scripture (Law and Prophecy) and is the gift of Christ to his Church at Pentecost. The Spirit continues his work through the Church today in cultivating the Sacred Tradition, guiding the Magisterium, leading the faithful into divine encounters through the signs and symbols of the Liturgy, interceding in our prayers, inspiring charisms and ministries of the Church, witnesses to the world through the apostolic and missionary work of the Church, and manifests holiness in the world through the saints and their continued work for salvation of all (688). His mission is the mission of Jesus; "When the Father sends His Word, He sends His Breath" (689). Jesus enters the world by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit" (Luke 1:35) and as he departs the world "a cloud took him from their sight" (one of the 8 symbols of the Holy Spirit) (Acts 1:9). The joint mission of Christ and the Holy Spirit is perfected in the Church, in whom the Spirit is constantly preparing humanity for missionary evangelization, manifesting the risen Lord to them and recalling his words and deeds, making the mysteries of Christ present in our lives (chiefly in the Eucharist) and bringing them into communion with God (737). As a gift to humanity, the Holy Spirit is the source of grace through which faith, hope, and charity is possible in our lives. By the 7 Gifts (Is 11:2), born in us through our initiation, our lives, conformed to Christ, begin to bear much fruit as evident by the 9 Fruits of the Holy Spirit (Gal 5:22-23) (CCC 733-36).

The public is invited to the Boy Scouts of America International Scout Expo parade on Saturday, June 18, 2022 at 9:00am on Central Avenue. The parade will feature nearly 1100 Scouts and leaders representing eight states—Wisconsin, Illinois, Kansas, Oregon, California, Louisiana, Minnesota, Montana and Canada. Please come support these Scouts!

Sister's Corner

Praised by Jesus Christ...now and forever!

Dear friends in Christ...The celebration of Trinity Sunday is most particular, intentionally and specifically recognizing and contemplating the great mystery of the Trinity, three persons in one Most Holy God. As religious sisters we are consecrated to God through vows that last for all eternity, and thus our lives are to reflect a continual celebration of this mystery. It is a very special and significant experience of the bond of love. We are considered as 'spouses of Christ,' Who lifts us to the Father's Heart, through the inspiration and action of the Holy Spirit.

Much of our time in religious life is given to prayer where we lift our minds and hearts to God, entering ever more deeply into closer union with our Beloved. We all want to spend time with those we love, most especially our spouses. It is how we draw closer to one another. As we settle into a new life here in Great Falls, Sister Agnes and I are slowly reclaiming our "Horarium," our way, or schedule, of prayer. It offers a peaceful and life-giving rhythm, especially in contrast to the noise and busyness that surrounds us. It is important for everyone to set aside time to be with our Beloved Triune God, getting to know each person, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is easy to establish a Horarium for yourselves and your families. Begin simply and add on as you start to develop a rhythm. Below is a general sample of ours.

- ☐ 6:00-8:00 Angelus, Divine Office of Readings, Holy Hour, Lauds (Morning Prayer)
- ☐ 8:30 Holy Mass (silent prayer 15 minutes before and after)
- ☐ 11:30- 11:50 Spiritual reading
- ☐ 11:50- 12:15 Angelus, Sext (Noon Prayer), Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Stations of Cross-Friday
- ☐ 4:00 -5:15 Holy Hour, Rosary, Angelus, Vespers (Evening Prayer)
- ☐ 7:50 PM Compline (Night Prayer) (Silence until breakfast)
- ☐ 30 minutes Scripture reading daily

Our prayer today: "Dear Father, help me to know You. Dear Lord Jesus, help me to know You. Dear Holy Spirit, help me to know You." Ask, and then quietly listen as each person of the Trinity makes Himself known to you. We look forward to hearing about your new Horarium!

In amore Iesu Christi,

One Minute Meditations

Take your rightful place

As a baptized Catholic, your parish is your home by right.

As such, you have the right to a seat at your parish table.

You take it when you attend weekend Mass, and seek peace from sacraments such as the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Holy Matrimony.

Times change; God doesn't

The Bible tells of countless times when God gave his people victory in otherwise hopeless circumstances, provided for them when they had no resources, and guided them in their decisions. God is ready to work as powerfully for you.

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 'Honor your father and mother' (this is the first commandment with a promise), 'that it may be well with you and that you may live long on the earth.' Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:1-4).

God waits for our "Yes"

God loves us and wants us to be happy with Him in Heaven forever, but He won't force Himself on us. Out of respect for our free will, God asks that we cooperate with His grace to save us, but leaves it up to us to say, "Yes!"

Cultivate your faith. The better we know our Catholic Faith the easier it is to know how to live it. The Catechism of the Catholic Church summarizes all major teachings of the Catholic Church. Read an article in it each day and learn a new term from the glossary weekly. Then, there will be no guessing about what Catholics believe.

Keep your conscience in shape.

A well-formed conscience signals us when a choice is virtuous (good) or sinful (bad). Review what the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes require. Meditate on the examples of Jesus and Mary in the Gospels and how your behavior compares.

Stay close to the Sacraments. Through the Sacraments we directly encounter Christ. Attend Confession monthly and Mass at least weekly. This is the best way to stay close to God and His Heart.

Perform Works of Mercy. God uses these opportunities to conform us more fully to Christ. Find ways to serve your parish in time, resources, or gifts. It is Jesus who ultimately receives our gift (Matthew 25:40).

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics use the different titles when we address the clergy?

After Jesus ascended, the Church grew so quickly that the spiritual needs of the Christian community demanded a global hierarchy of clergy to minister to them while maintaining the unity of the Faith. In response, the Apostles ordained deacons to assist so they could focus on liturgy (Acts 6:2-4).

Today, there are different titles for different roles and levels of authority. For example, we are most likely to encounter priests ("Father"), deacons, and bishops ("Your Excellency," or "Your Grace").

Three invaluable lessons from the Sacred Heart devotion

Attaining holiness can seem overwhelming and complicated, but Jesus makes it simple: “Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). Follow the lessons of His Sacred Heart.

Focus on Jesus. We often get in trouble when we lose sight of who Jesus is (God) and how much He loves us. Actually, God is always close and loves us with an infinite, intense, burning love. Keep an image of the Sacred Heart nearby for when you feel discouraged or disconnected from Him.

Give Him your “Yes.” Instead of relying on your own strength and strategy, consecrate yourself to Jesus’ Sacred Heart and let Him form and direct you. He is patient, gentle, and knows what we can handle. Say “Yes” to whatever He asks.

“Love is not loved!” Jesus wants our love but is often rejected by our sins. Love Jesus for those who won’t. Spend time with Him and thank Him for what He’s done for you. Offer Him your sufferings for a soul in need.

from Scripture

Luke 9:51-62,
the cost of discipleship

Jesus’ listeners often got swept up by his charismatic manner and professed eagerness to follow him. But they weren’t always prepared for what it took to be a true disciple.

In this Gospel passage, a young man asked to follow Jesus but was deflated when Jesus pointed out that He had no home and none of the things considered necessary for a happy life. Jesus warned that it wouldn’t always be comfortable to follow him.

The timing wasn’t right for the second man. He promised to follow Jesus but said he needed to fulfill his duty to his dying father first. In truth, Jesus sets the priorities we follow. Our duty is to obey. Finally, Jesus used the example of plowing a field to make His point. If you look back while plowing it can ruin the job. He used that example to help the third man understand that we need to have a singleness of purpose to be His disciple. We will have to make sacrifices to follow Jesus. But He promises us that the rewards will be worth much more.

Q & A Why are there different lists of Apostles?

Ever wonder why there seem to be different Apostles in different Gospels? For instance, there’s a “Judas, not the Iscariot” at the Last Supper (John 14:22) who isn’t mentioned anywhere else.

Likewise, Nathanael, who asked “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” (John 1:46), is absent in the other Gospels.

Usually, the difference is because some of the Apostles had two names. For example, St. Matthew the tax collector, before joining Jesus, is “Levi” (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27). The “other” Judas is called Thaddaeus. Nathanael is in the other Gospels, too, but under his Jewish surname, Bartholomew (Bar-Tolomai, “son of Tolomai”).

Considering that half of the Twelve Apostles would have shared a name with another Apostle, some may have changed names to avoid confusion, e.g. Judas-not-the-Iscariot changing his name to Thaddaeus. All these differences show that the Apostles, who came from diverse backgrounds, were called for one mission of building up the Kingdom. Likewise, God calls us to build up the Kingdom, and gives each an important role in it.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 4 – St. Francis Caracciolo (1608). St. Francis was born in the Abruzzo region in Italy. He went on to found the Minor Clerks Regular with St. John Adorno. The Order was approved in 1588, and St. Francis became its superior for life.

June 6 – Mary, Mother of the Church (2018). On the Cross, Jesus gave us His mother to be our mother (John 19:27). Even in Heaven, she prays and cares for us as our spiritual mother.

June 19 – Corpus Christi Sunday.

On this solemnity, we celebrate the transformation of the bread and wine into Jesus’ Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist. This solemnity was established by Pope Urban IV in 1264 in response to the need for a Eucharistic feast day.

June 23 – The Nativity of St. John the Baptist (1st century). Before St. John was born, his father, Zechariah received a message from the angel Gabriel foretelling his birth. His doubt was punished by his being struck speechless until John’s birth.
