Well, how is it already the middle of July! Could we please slow it down? The school is so squeaky and shiny clean! Hard to think it will be filled with our staff and students next month. We really are looking forward to the joyful noise of students learning.

Catechism Corner

Why does the Church attach such high value to good morals? (CCC 1703-1719)

“Living a moral life bears witness to the dignity of the person” (1706). The human creature is the only being in creation God specifically willed for its own sake. Created in the divine image, our bodies are endowed with a spiritual and immortal soul, and our soul yearns for “eternal beatitude”(1703). Participating in the light and power of the Spirit, man recognizes the laws and patterns of nature and builds himself up towards the Creator “in seeking and loving what is true and good” (1704). Though handicapped by original and personal sin, in union with Christ’s death and resurrection, man attains the “perfection of charity” through grace which makes him capable of good works (1709). Jesus’ core message to humanity, how to live our human lives, is found in the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-12), which transcend our temporal existence that we may perceive with the eyes of faith our eternal home (1716). These beatitudes reveal the way of the Christian life: perseverance in suffering, and sustained hope in the promise of Christ, despite one’s circumstances, realized in the lives of the saints (1717). Finally, these behaviors point us in the direction of our true hearts’ desire– happiness, and more, divine happiness, namely, the beatific vision. The desire of every human heart is toward God: “I seek a happy life, let me seek you so that my soul may live”- St Augustine of Hippo (1718). The Beatitudes are the means towards the divine goal of every human desire (1719).

Sister’s Corner

Praised be Jesus Christ...now and forever...and in all things!

Dear Friends in Christ,

Consecration and the Holy Habit: part 1...We have all been consecrated, or set aside, for God through our Baptism. We belong to Him and to Him alone. We are sacred! What is consecrated cannot be used for the mundane or profane, as it is ordered to the worship of God. Blessed objects, for example, cannot be used as door stops or tossed around. This applies to humans as well. Sin and mistreatment of our bodies profanes what has been rightly ordered for the worship of God and is sacred. Throughout the history of the Church those items set aside for God have been covered, for example: the altar with an altar cloth, the tabernacle with a veil, the chalice with a veil.

As Consecrated Religious we are set aside for God alone in our entirety, and so we, too, are covered in a particular way that speaks to the sacredness of our commitment. Our manner of covering is our Holy Habit. For us it is a wedding gown worn at all times. Each piece of the habit holds a special significance, and a particular prayer is said while putting it on. This week let us each ponder our own consecration and how we manifest our sacredness to the world.

In amore Iesu Christi,
Reverend Mother Mary Paul of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, SDG

Fall Festival

Sunday October 2nd, 2022

Our next meeting for Fall Fest 2022 is scheduled for Tuesday July 19, at 6:00pm. For an event like this to happen, we need LOTS of help! This very small committee can't do this all by ourselves. Please come join us with ideas, suggestions, help, and support for this fun parish event.

We are looking for families interested in helping with the carnival games, people interested in helping with the food, and folks interested in any other fun activities for the day. Let's make this year even better!

The Holy Eucharist and the Domestic Church

As part of the National Eucharistic Revival, the Diocesan Committee on Discipleship has invited John and Claire Grabowski to the Diocese of Great Falls - Billings. Married for 36 years, John and Claire have 5 children and 6 grandchildren. Together they are the authors of the commentary on the anniversary edition of Familiaris Consortio,

One Body: A Program of Marriage Formation for the New Evangelization, and Raising Catholic Kids for their Vocations. They have spoken together to groups of laity, priests, and bishops across the United States and abroad and they are regular guests on Dr. Greg and Lisa Popcak's "More to Life" show on EWTN radio.

John and Claire will speak about how devotion to the Holy Eucharist enriches and enlivens a healthy Domestic Church.
