Catechism Corner

Is there a basic concept from which all Catholic doctrine is derived? (CCC 1-3)

“God, infinitely perfect and blessed in Himself, in a plan of sheer goodness freely created man to make him share in His own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek Him, to know Him, to love Him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of His family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Savior. In His Son and through Him, He invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, His adopted children and thus heirs of His blessed life.” (CCC 1). God moves toward His creation, constantly calling us to respond in kind and grow into deeper unity with Him. Every move He makes demands a response from man, either full, active, conscious acceptance of his love, or denial. The first paragraph of the Catechism is what the Church has called the kerygma, or the basic proclamation of the Gospel. The very first apostles took this basic proclamation out into the known world and through their bold witness slowly began the process of converting the world to Christ, accomplishing his Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) (CCC 2). Each Confirmed Catholic is called to share this message, the kerygma, in turn with those who seek truth, to bring them to Christ who is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6) (CCC 3). Essentially, the Church calls each of us to witness Christ to the world both through word and deed, to announce the Good News of our redemption.

4 Stages of Marriage - (1) Romance, (2) Disillusionment, (3) Misery, and (4) Awakening. Many marriages experience the first 3 Stages. Marriages that end in divorce never make it to the 4th Stage of Awakening. Don't give up without learning about the 4th Stage of Awakening. If your marriage suffers from disillusionment or misery, please contact Retrouvaille. Retrouvaille is for any couple who would like to rediscover their marriage and improve communication. Our next program begins October 28, 2022. Sister's Corner

Praised be Jesus Christ...now and forever...and in all things!
Let us pray for the grace and healing of Our Lord upon our country, remembering the trauma of September 11, 2001, and unite our sorrow to that of Our Blessed Lady. This is especially appropriate since September is dedicated to the Seven Sorrows of Mary. Holy Mother Church has chosen to venerate seven of her sorrows, although who could possibly quantify her tremendous sufferings?! In our own sufferings we can often feel isolated, confused, and even resentful.

Our Lady has promised great graces to those who ponder her Seven Sorrows. During this month let us unite our sufferings with Hers and teach our children to do the same. When feeling lost or out of place at school, work, or in the world in general, consider the flight of the Holy Family into Egypt. When a loved one is struggling with addictions or illness consider the meeting of Mary and Jesus on the Via Dolorosa. Union with Mary will lead to union with her Beloved Son and an all-encompassing peace beyond all understanding.

1. Prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2: 34,35)
2. Flight into Egypt (Mt 2: 13-14)
3. Loss of Child Jesus in the Temple (Lk 2: 34-35)
4. Meeting of Jesus and Mary on the way to Calvary
5. Crucifixion and Death of Jesus
6. Body of Jesus is removed from the Cross
7. Burial of Jesus

In amore Iesu Christi,
Rev Mother Mary Paul of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, SDG
