"Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother." ~ St. Padre Pio

On Monday our 8th Graders took part in the first annual World of Works Career Expo! They experienced hands-on local careers at the University of Providence and Great Falls College MSU. They spoke with police and FBI officers, money managers, engineers, military members, agriculture industries, news casters, and many more. Each student got to handle different simulators for welding and medical, retail training, farming equipment and much more. It was a wonderful experience for our 8th Graders! This Wednesday our parent organization Home & School hosted an outdoor Movie Night showing Coco! This is one of many fellowship events that our school hosts for our families.

We have VIP packages available to purchase along with tables for eight, couples' tickets, or single tickets. Catechism Corner

Is there a basic concept from which all Catholic doctrine is derived? (CCC 1-3)

“God, infinitely perfect and blessed in Himself, in a plan of sheer goodness freely created man to make him share in His own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek Him, to know Him, to love Him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of His family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Savior. In His Son and through Him, He invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, His adopted children and thus heirs of His blessed life.” (CCC 1). God moves toward His creation, constantly calling us to respond in kind and grow into deeper unity with Him. Every move He makes demands a response from man, either full, active, conscious acceptance of his love, or denial. The first paragraph of the Catechism is what the Church has called the kerygma, or the basic proclamation of the Gospel. The very first apostles took this basic proclamation out into the known world and through their bold witness slowly began the process of converting the world to Christ, accomplishing his Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) (CCC 2). Each Confirmed Catholic is called to share this message, the kerygma, in turn with those who seek truth, to bring them to Christ who is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6) (CCC 3). Essentially, the Church calls each of us to witness Christ to the world both through word and deed, to announce the Good News of our redemption.

Sister’s Corner

Praised be Jesus Christ...now and forever...and in all things!

The writings of Msgr. Romano Guardini have become an important and edifying part of our spiritual formation as Sisters. “Meditations before Mass,” published by Sophia Press, is a collection of 32 consecutive short talks that were presented by Msgr. Guardini prior to his Masses in order to instruct and inspire his flock in regard to the meaning and depth of the Divine Liturgy. These simple talks were deemed so helpful that they were subsequently published.

Yesterday I read about composure, about putting our whole heart, mind, soul and strength into a task or relationship, about being totally present to it. The great commandment to love God this way came to mind (Deut 6:5, Mt 22:37). Guardini explains that the Divine Liturgy is about this same kind of presence, for us and for God. God is present here, in the Eucharist, which is a great mystery indeed! He is not present in this way outside of the Eucharist. As much as many might think that they possess the totality of God in the surrounding beauty of nature, they simply do not.

This incredibly astounding presence of our God, body, blood, soul, and divinity, at Holy Mass in the Eucharist, demands a response from us, His creatures; a response of our presence, our totality- “with body, mind, and soul, with attention, reverence, and love.” Guardini expounds: “That is composure. Only he who is composed can have God’s presence within him and appear before Him to respond to His outpouring grace with adoration and love (p.28).” From here the good monsignor explains how our totality of presence, our composure, should translate into a position of “attentive listening” and an overall bearing that speaks of being in the Divine Presence.

As I meander through this wonderful text, I am struck by just how powerful the simple can actually be, and of how lacking in many of these simple things our overall culture has become. We can become so comfortable in our mannerisms from being in the outside world that we forget to stand straight and tall in the presence of Divine Majesty. The inside of the Church must be different from the outside. I invite you to invest in a copy and see if you, too, aren’t transformed by the awe of simplicity.

In amore Iesu Christi,
Rev Mother Mary Paul of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, SDG

FEATURING OUR FAMOUS MEATLOAF DINNER!

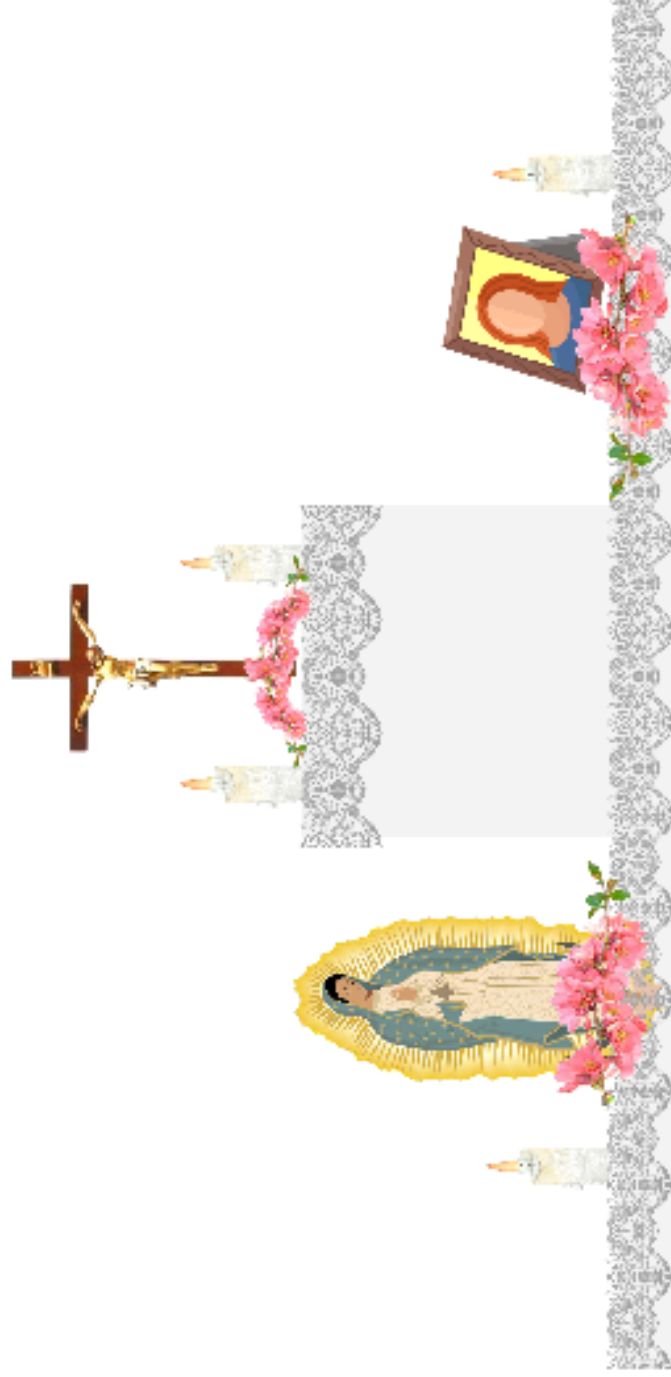

Saint Michael Radio ~ FM 97.1
“Sharing the Splendor of Truth”

Holy Spirit Catholic Parish invites you to make an offering for the dead:

- Bring a 5x7 photograph of a loved one who has died in the last year for our parish ofrenda. Please have them to the office no later than October 30th.
- Feel free to decorate around the photograph with a small votive candle and a small arrangement of fresh flowers.
- Pray for all of our deceased family and friends throughout the month of November.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

In full consciousness of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the Church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honored with great respect the memory of the dead; and because it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins' she offers her suffrages for them. Our prayer for them is capable not only of helping them, but also of making their intercession for us effective. (Catechism, 958)

Grant #29.1.1: For the Souls in Purgatory

- A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted each and every day from November 1st to Nov 8th, who devoutly visit a cemetery and there pray, if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

Grant #29.1.2: All Souls' Day (Nov 2nd)

- A plenary indulgence is granted the faithful who, on All Souls' Day (or according to the judgment of the bishop, on the Sunday preceding or following it, or on the solemnity of All Saints), devoutly visits a church or an oratory and recites an Our Father and the Creed.
