Holy Spirit Catholic School celebrated Red Ribbon Week with dress-up days and police presentations. Officer Marshall and Detective Munkres held talks about Halloween safety, stranger danger, online and gaming safety, peer pressure, and gun safety. They showed off the lights and sirens on their squad car and put our middle schoolers through an impairment obstacle course! Holy Spirit Catholic School stands united against drugs!

This week many of our students took part in extracurricular educational programs. On Monday we welcomed Shakespeare in the schools for our middle schoolers to be introduced to the world of Shakespeare. This was an amazing experience for our students and staff. On Friday Mrs. Aberl's 5th Graders spent the day at Montana Starbase held at the Air National Guard base. This was an immersive STEM workshop for our students to get hands-on experience. Mrs. Schraner took 4th, 5th, and 6th graders to experience our local symphony. What an exciting week of learning at Holy Spirit Catholic School.

Get your Gala tickets now! The funds raised through Gala are supporting classroom instruction and innovation, enhancing academic program materials, and giving financial assistance to students through our Dare to Dream campaign. The Gala will be held on Friday, Nov 11th from 6pm to 10pm. Check out our events page on Facebook for sneak peeks at auction items! If you would like more information, contact our Development Director Jenifer Thomas at 406-761-5775.

Catechism Corner

Is there a basic concept from which all Catholic doctrine is derived? (CCC 1-3)

“God, infinitely perfect and blessed in Himself, in a plan of sheer goodness freely created man to make him share in His own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek Him, to know Him, to love Him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of His family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Savior. In His Son and through Him, He invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, His adopted children and thus heirs of His blessed life.” (CCC 1). God moves toward His creation, constantly calling us to respond in kind and grow into deeper unity with Him. Every move He makes demands a response from man, either full, active, conscious acceptance of his love, or denial. The first paragraph of the Catechism is what the Church has called the kerygma, or the basic proclamation of the Gospel. The very first apostles took this basic proclamation out into the known world and through their bold witness slowly began the process of converting the world to Christ, accomplishing his Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) (CCC 2). Each Confirmed Catholic is called to share this message, the kerygma, in turn with those who seek truth, to bring them to Christ who is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6) (CCC 3). Essentially, the Church calls each of us to witness Christ to the world both through word and deed, to announce the Good News of our redemption.

Sister’s Corner

Praised be Jesus Christ...now and forever...and in all things!

The writings of Msgr. Romano Guardini have become an important and edifying part of our spiritual formation as Sisters. “Meditations before Mass,” published by Sophia Press, is a collection of 32 consecutive short talks that were presented by Msgr. Guardini prior to his Masses in order to instruct and inspire his flock in regard to the meaning and depth of the Divine Liturgy. These simple talks were deemed so helpful that they were subsequently published.

Yesterday I read about composure, about putting our whole heart, mind, soul and strength into a task or relationship, about being totally present to it. The great commandment to love God this way came to mind (Deut 6:5, Mt 22:37). Guardini explains that the Divine Liturgy is about this same kind of presence, for us and for God. God is present here, in the Eucharist, which is a great mystery indeed! He is not present in this way outside of the Eucharist. As much as many might think that they possess the totality of God in the surrounding beauty of nature, they simply do not.

This incredibly astounding presence of our God, body, blood, soul, and divinity, at Holy Mass in the Eucharist, demands a response from us, His creatures; a response of our presence, our totality- “with body, mind, and soul, with attention, reverence, and love.” Guardini expounds: “That is composure. Only he who is composed can have God’s presence within him and appear before Him to respond to His outpouring grace with adoration and love (p.28).” From here the good monsignor explains how our totality of presence, our composure, should translate into a position of “attentive listening” and an overall bearing that speaks of being in the Divine Presence.

As I meander through this wonderful text, I am struck by just how powerful the simple can actually be, and of how lacking in many of these simple things our overall culture has become. We can become so comfortable in our mannerisms from being in the outside world that we forget to stand straight and tall in the presence of Divine Majesty. The inside of the Church must be different from the outside. I invite you to invest in a copy and see if you, too, aren’t transformed by the awe of simplicity.
