Commission reports

Worship: Decorated for advent. Prayers requests can be written and placed near the manger. Wise men will travel towards the manger starting at Christmas. Worship commission is reading a book as a group: A Guide to Liturgy Committees.

Formation is starting for volunteers, after they have completed formation then specific training for each position will start sometime after December.

Education: Reading about family catechesis.

Christian service: First meeting with Kimberly has been completed. Looking to begin with a focus of outreach for people coming into the church needing assistance with gas, rent, etc. She is also working with community programs such as St. V, Opportunities, Family Promise, to take advantage of these programs for people who come in.

Would like a representative from the parish council to attend these meetings. Dave will reach out and attend meetings if possible.

Gala update

Final numbers pending

Parish Property Update

Krista Macek going to list properties on Central new boiler working now at Peter and Paul

The parish council recommendation is to assess looking at selling the property between the church and the Mormon church instead of the property across the street which includes Peter and Paul.

Catholic Appeal Campaign from Diocese

69,000 pledged. 68,763 have been paid.

Total of 75,000 owed to diocese.

Aubrey is going to share these number with the parish in the bulletin

Holy Spirit School

Will invite Melissa the principal to the next meeting to give an overview of the following:

Curriculum. Educational and Religious. Does the parish need to help update?

What is the accreditation process and what points are required to be met during each accreditation process

COVID money. How this was spent.

Budget. Projections for next year.

Advisory Board members. Role and goals of the board.
